

English (BA): Teacher Education Concentration

Core Curriculum

The undergraduate major in English is built around an 18-hour core that includes one course from each of the following six categories: American Literature, British Literature, World Literature, Film, Linguistics, and Rhetoric.

Students in the Teacher Education program (TED) take 31 hours of professional coursework in addition to the 18-hour core curriculum in English and the 21-hour TED concentration. The concentration includes five literature courses and two English electives. Formal applications are required for admission to Teacher Education candidacy and for admission to the Professional Semester. Students who complete the program's academic and licensure requirements are eligible to apply for certification to teach English in secondary schools in North Carolina.

For more information, including program contact information, visit the Department of English website (<https://english.chass.ncsu.edu/undergraduate/majors/>).

Career Opportunities

A degree in English provides both liberal education and practical knowledge about the role of writing and language in the everyday world. It leads to careers in such fields as teaching, journalism, advertising, public relations, personnel management, technical writing, business writing, and creative writing. It sharpens the analytical and interpretive skills needed for professional and managerial careers, and it serves as an excellent preparation for students planning to study law or medicine and for those intending to do graduate work in literature, linguistics, film, or rhetoric.
