

Arts Studies (BA): Film Studies Concentration

Arts Studies majors learn skills that apply to many fields, which are relevant in a changing, interdisciplinary, global world. Our students find work in museums and art galleries, sound studios, arts nonprofits and community arts programs. Graduates of the program follow their passion to make art and teach others and start their own arts businesses. They become artistic directors for large companies and start-ups.

Graduates with a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Arts Studies: Film Studies Concentration have gone on to careers in film and television and in education. The analytical and communication skills our program develops enables our graduates to work successfully in creative, educational, and business environments. Many of our students go on to obtain advanced degrees (MA, MLIS, PhD) in complementary fields of study.
