Foreign Language and Literature
The Master's degree in Foreign Languages and Literature offers concentrations in both French Language and Literature and Spanish Language and Literature.

Admission Requirements
• A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university
• Undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or above
• Narrative statement of professional and personal objectives (in English, 300 words).
• Language proficiency as determined by a writing sample and a speaking sample in the target language (French or Spanish)
• Some applicants may be given provisional admittance. Students admitted provisionally must complete at least 9 hours of 500-level courses in the target language, earning grades of B or higher in order to receive full graduate standing.

Student Financial Support
Graduate assistantships are available to students in both the French and Spanish concentrations and are awarded by open competition and based on the strength of the admissions application.

Other Relevant Information
Students are admitted for the fall semester only. February 1 is the application deadline for students interested in receiving full consideration for a teaching assistantship. (Interest is indicated on the Graduate School Admissions application.) February 15 is the deadline for international students and May 1 for domestic students.
