

International Studies (BA): Europe Concentration

To see more about what you will learn in this program, visit the Learning Outcomes website (<https://apps.oirp.ncsu.edu/pgas/>)!

Expand your knowledge of the political, social and economic processes that influence contemporary Europe. Europe has been a center of international power for centuries, and its individual nations continue to wield significant global influence. The continent has undergone profound political and economic transformations in the last half-century that include the emergence of the European Union (EU), whose institutions link 27 nations. Despite these developments, Europe remains very much an idea in progress and a reality under construction. Some of the areas where we see this reality contested include challenges with continued expansion of the EU to include additional countries, transnational migration, monetary integration, and competing political ideologies.

The future of Europe includes some major challenges, including the integration of new member states as the European Union expands, issues related to transnational migrations and trafficking, the difficulties of the Euro-Zone and monetary union, and the rise of competing ideologies, particularly far-right political parties.

¹ C- or better

Although some courses are listed in more than one category, no course may satisfy more than one requirement. IS majors may take no more than four 200 level courses in their departmental requirements.

Study Abroad: International major students are required to complete six (6) credit hours of study abroad coursework. Prior to enrolling in a study abroad program students are required to consult with their International Studies advisor in order to ascertain that the courses they plan on taking overseas may be transferred for credit to the NC State and may count toward the major and/or the GE requirements.

Major Residency Requirements – Minimum of 15 hours of international studies at NC State.

Major Grade Point Average (GPA) Requirements- A 2.0 major and cumulative gpa is required for graduation. All major courses must receive a grade of C- or better.
